

Doug Berry

January 28, 1972 - May 30, 2026

Douglas Wayne “Doug” Berry, of Broken Arrow passed away Saturday morning in Broken Arrow at the age of 54. He was born in Tahlequah on Friday, January 28, 1972 to Sue (Dobson) Berry and Solomon Berry. He was preceded in death by his father Solomon Berry.

A man of many talents, Doug was a well-respected mechanical engineer in the oil and gas industry. Doug’s most important role was father to Nick and Josh and husband to Lisa. Nothing brought him greater joy than his family. Doug took his role of father seriously. He was present, available, kind, teaching his boys all that he knew, going on bike rides, fishing, watching funny shows. He was everything a boy could want in a dad. He was Lisa’s best friend. They loved being foodies, cooking new recipes together, and drinking coffee together.

He loved working with his hands and built a lot of his own furniture by hand. He was also a versatile musician, having learned how to play multiple instruments. He also enjoyed flying and earned his private pilots license.

A service honoring Doug’s life will be held 11:00am on Monday, June 8 at The Church of St. Benedict with burial following at Floral Haven Memorial Gardens. A luncheon at St. Benedict will follow burial and all are welcome.

Those left to cherish his memory are:

Wife Lisa Berry of the home

Children Nick Berry of the home

Josh Berry of the home

Mother Sue Berry of Tahlequah

Siblings Kristi Crunkleton and husband Daniel
