“ I'll dig up some photos and scan them.

I met Doug in 1981 at age 12 we both walked from our houses to play video games in the air-conditioning Safeway store in the summer heat.

We went to middle & high school together and hung out for many years.

Doug was one of a kind and will surely be missed by all who knew him.

This is so sad to hear. I just happened to look him up on fb today and found this. Can someone please tell me what happened? He was so young..We dated for 3 years in our mid 20's. Sending love and prayers to his family and friends.

“ I knew Doug through my brother. I would go to their jam sessions and even when they played Rooster Days in Broken Arrow. He was always really nice to me even though I was younger than them... and he never had a bad word to say about anyone to me.

When he was at Guitar Center, he helped my wife pick out a great guitar for my birthday; many times when I play it I think of Doug. He was a great guy and always so nice.

God speed my friend, ride that “monorail” to the sky....

“ I’m very sad to hear of Doug’s passing. I haven’t seen him in many years, so my memories of him are as a young boy, having fun. And maybe playing a drum set? Seems likely since he was a musician. I’m sad I didn’t keep in touch. May he rest in peace. Sending love to Aunt Betty, Kevin and Karen. ❤️

“ Doug and I have played some wonderful music together. I will never forget his enthusiasm and friendship. I was not related, but I was always his brother. My condolences for his mother and siblings through this.
