“ I really enjoyed knowing Doyle, especially playing Mexican Train with he and others on Game Night in our complex clubhouse. I think I may have enjoyed more at "picking at him." One time he started talking "pig latin" to me and I think I surprised him when I answered back with the the same so-called language. He laughed so hard. Doyle, I miss our game nights with you and Carol.

“ I was privileged to know Doyle and Carol and share lots of special fellowship prayer meetings. Carol, I know you are very heartbroken at this time, and please know I am praying for God’s comfort for you and the family. The story Doyle told of how you all met is one of my favorite love stories.

“ Everytime grandpa would visit us as kids, he would bring a box of change he had saved. He would give it to me and my sister, and say don't tell Carol lol. There was always 40-50 bucks worth, that my sister and I would split. When your a kid 50 bucks was enough to buy the world haha. I love you Grandpa!
