September 28, 1923 - October 4, 2016

A celebration of the life of Elbert "Wick" Pollard will be 10:00 a.m., Monday, October 10, 2016 at Hayhurst Funeral Home Chapel. Wick will be laid to rest following the service at 2:30 p.m. at Lutie Cemetery, Wilburton, OK. Family and friends may visit the funeral home on Sunday from 2:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. with family there to receive visitors from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. Wick passed away on Tuesday, October 4, 2016 at the age of 93.

Wick was born in Wilburton, Oklahoma on Friday, September 28, 1923 to Paul Pickins Pollard and Dovie Arbella (Clawson) Pollard. Wick graduated from high school in Panola, Oklahoma.

On May 6, 1944 Wick married the love of his life, Cora Lea Fox in a McAlester, Oklahoma wedding ceremony. Their union endured more than 72 years and was blessed with three sons, Paul, Terry and Tracy. Wick was a wonderful husband, father, grandfather and role model. He loved his family and enjoyed spending time with them.

Wick was a hard worker all his life. Before retirement he was employed as a service technician for Sears. He and Cora built and paid for their home in 1950 with no debt.

Wick was a people-person who enjoyed telling stories and just visiting at the coffee shop. He was a sports fan and especially liked watching football. Wick loved gardening and working out in the yard. He loved his dogs and took special care of them. Wick was a simple, happy man who just loved life.

“ Wick and Cora were our neighbors across the street when I was growing up. They were the best neighbors you could ask for. They never seemed to mind when I would show up at their door with the multiple fundraisers the Broken Arrow Pride required. Cora, my thoughts and prayers go out to you and your family in this very sad time. Wick, you will be sorely missed! Love from the Andersons

“ Wick was such a kind gentleman. His wife, Cora, was our school receptionist and they were a wonderful couple. Wick was a devoted family man and very proud of his sons and extended family. He will be missed.
