

Elouise Knox

December 26, 1935 - July 9, 2019

A Funeral Service for Elouise Knox has been scheduled for 10:00 AM, Monday, July 15, 2019 at Century Cathedral Church in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Burial will follow at Fairview Cemetery in Owasso, Oklahoma under the direction of Hayhurst Funeral Home. Viewing will take place on Sunday, July 14, 2019 from 2:00 PM until 8:00 PM at Hayhurst Funeral Home in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma.

Elouise was born on Thursday, December 26, 1935 in Ray, Oklahoma, the daughter of Charlie and Dona (Shackleford) Hathcock. She died on Tuesday, July 9, 2019 in Tulsa, Oklahoma. She was 83 years of age.

Elouise was a very intelligent lady. She worked in several banks as a teller, working her way up to the head teller. No surprise there. Elouise always seemed to thrive working with numbers and eventually worked for H&R Block doing taxes for several years. After retiring she would do close friends' and families' taxes from her home right up to tax season 2018.

Elouise always wanted to own a Merle Norman store; so she purchased one and made her dream into a reality. She was also an excellent seamstress and enjoyed numerous crafts. Pottery was one of those and she even had her own kiln. Elouise was a great cook. Her tabouli and chocolate sheet cake were extraordinary and her pot roast with trimmings for Sunday dinners was a delicious staple.

Elouise was a wonderful gardener and many friends and family members enjoyed the fruits of her labor. She enjoyed colorful flowers everywhere.

Elouise also liked to travel all over the United States; from Disneyland in California and Florida to the Broadway shows in New York to fishing and having fun in the sun at numerous lakes, actually living at Lake Keystone. Elouise was an animal lover and had several dogs and cats over the years. She was a faithful person and involved in her church. In later years, she could spend hours on the phone chatting with close friends and loved ones; no texting for her. Elouise was a proud Oklahoman and proud of her Cherokee American Indian heritage.

All who knew Elouise will miss her elegance, loving smile and generous heart.

“ Surrounded by family and a heavenly homecoming prayer the sweetest calmness filled the room at approximately 9:10pm 7/9/19 she crossed over the veil into our sweet saviors arms. There is nothing more precious than family as they are blessings sweet gifts given to us to cherish for such a short time. Life is really no perspector of persons we all play the hand we are dealt the best way we know how but she was special everyone who met her knew she loved them wholeheartedly. If you've ever met my grandma Elouise you'd know she welcomed you with the sweetest kindest presence always leaving you better than before you arrived. I'm going to miss her beautiful spirit, the best hugs, and that million dollar smile. Her laughter has been in my mind and dreams overnight. Can recount many a times she'd get so tickled at my gpa Eddie when he was alive oh boy he was a many of joy, comedy, oh and shenanigans "oh Eddie" she's giggle as my gpa tried to show us grandkids how he made a duck call from a pop can tab 😂 There's joy in the knowing that she's had such a wonderful life. Always loved that you'd never meet her without a smile or hug and she was the most elegant person in many ways. Will cherish the many memories of her letting me wear her lipstick she always was fancy even doing lawn work, the many times we'd feed the goldfish in the back yard pond, or her cherished poodle named "fancy" of all names it fit her so well she was fancy always. Countless sleep overs, to wearing her high heels, being spoiled w white mystery airhead candies and those road trips to black bear diner for blackberry cobbler. There's never been a stranger to her she loved her family, friends, and her church will her whole being. My heart is forever changed by her kindness. I'm sad my daughter won't get to make memories w her like I did as a child but knowing she's finished this race and won so many souls for the kingdom of God makes our family smile. Want to thank everyone for the calls, texts, prayers and well wishes as this week has been so hard on our whole family. Gonna strive to always leave people better than we find them just as she did. Being present as someone you love takes their last breath is the most beautiful and heartbreaking moment it's really indescribable. Our hearts are missing only the space she could hold. Forever grateful for all that she was. Please uplift our family as we grieve and celebrate her life. This past week she'd be so proud of how well she was cherished always also in her final days. Please continue to pray for our family. Thanks so much to all who attended her hospital stay, funeral home viewing and service our family thanks you for the outpouring of Love from you all ❤️

“ *Eloise,
I looked around and you were gone. God is very excited to have you with him now sharing all the little daily talks with him. I will miss our little neighborly chats and laughing together at all the funny things we experienced over the 27 years as neighbors. I never told you but you were my roll model for growing older with style and grace. I will be watching for you in the future and planning on catching up again. Until then all my love. Sherry Mooney*

“ *Eloise you are gone but you were my best friend and you will never be forgotten. We have a lot of awesome memories, you and I and our husbands- Perfecto and Jerry going to eat at Freddie's, going to look at the foliage, shopping and so much more.-- I realize you had a life before Jerry Knox however you had almost 17 years of marriage with Jerry Knox along with another step daughter Michelle and Step son Michael and three grandkids. They all loved you dearly. You were so proud of Michelle and her singing and the two grandson's playing the drums. You had a long full life and there is a void in my heart sister. I miss our daily morning calls!
Love you sister

“ I met Elouise back in 1962 in Tulsa. We had several mutual friends. I left Tulsa in 1968' In appx 2000 I was talking to a friend who kept talking about her neighbor Ellie. After several months we connected the facts that Ellie was the same Elouise I had known so many years ago. It is really sad how her death came to be. So sudden. I know she had a lot of friends and she will be missed. I am sending prayers to Jerry and all her loved ones. Rest In Peace Elouise.
