Eva "Pauline" Scott was born on Friday, February 5, 1943 in Delaware, Oklahoma to Paul and Eva Rosie (Bolin) Foster. Pauline passed away on Tuesday, July 18, 2017 at the age of 74.

Pauline graduated from Nowata High School and became a homemaker. She married Tommy Scott and their union was blessed with 7 children. Pauline was the ultimate wife, mother and grandmother. She adored her family and loved spending time with them.

In her free time Pauline enjoyed playing the piano, gardening, and taking care of her pets, especially her dog "Morey." She was always happy to see her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Although she had a long battle with cancer she never complained or let it stop her. She trusted God. He was to her "a very present help in the time of trouble." One of her favorite quotes from the Bible was from Proverbs 16:33

(Amplified) "...even the events that seem accidental are really ordered by Him."

She spent much time studying the Bible. Proverbs was one of her favorite books and she would often tell young wives and mothers to read it daily to learn how to be a godly wife and mother. Much of her life was spent being a pastor's wife and serving churches alongside her husband. She loved traveling with him in evangelistic work (when the children were older. Pauline was a wonderful wife and mother and a model to other young wives and mothers. Although she and her husband faced many difficult times in the ministry she never complained, she simply trusted God. She was a brave, strong woman who loved God, her family and those around her. She will be missed by all.
