

Forrest Pearson

November 30, 1939 - November 25, 2019

Forrest Keith Pearson

A Memorial Service has been set for 10:00 AM, Saturday, November 30, 2019 at Hayhurst Funeral Home Chapel.

Forrest was born in Watonga, Oklahoma on Thursday, November 30, 1939, the son of Velvie and Edna (Halverson) Pearson. He passed away on Monday, November 25, 2019 in Tulsa, Oklahoma at 79 years of age.

Forrest met Miss Judy Warren at Roman Nose State Park in Watonga and they married in August of 1959. A few years later, he served in the National Guard. Forrest went on to earn an Associate Degree and worked as a Tax Auditor in the Oil & Gas Industry, retiring in 2001 after 40 years. Forrest loved spending time with his family and coached kids' softball and soccer. He enjoyed all types of sports, and especially loved watching Cubs baseball and the Oklahoma State Cowboys. He enjoyed spending time on the golf course and looked forward to his Saturday and Sunday morning coffee time with his buddies which they have been doing for many, many years.

Forrest is survived by his wife, Judy Pearson of Broken Arrow, OK; Daughters Kristi Foreman and Teri Boss, both of Broken Arrow, OK; Son, Scott Pearson and wife Kimberly of Broken Arrow, OK; Grandchildren, Lyndsie Musick, Lacie

McDonald, Jessica Nequette, Taylor Hillman, Peyton Pearson, Presli Pearson, Keigyn Pearson, Olivia Boss and Evan Boss; six great-grandchildren and many nieces and nephews; Sister, Maxine Strack and Brothers, Delbert Pearson and Lyndell Pearson, all of Watonga, OK and Merlyn Pearson of Oklahoma City, OK.

Forrest is preceded in death by his parents, his son, Stephen Christopher and his brother, Marvin Pearson.

Memorials may be made to the American Diabetes Association, P. O. Box 15829, Arlington, VA 22215.
