“ I have been friends with Frances' son Mark for more than 25 years. I met Frances through Mark early on in our friendship. As a contractor there were times when I would go to Frances and her husbands home to help them with a household project. Frances would always meet me with a smile, a water or pop to drink, and would never let you leave without feeding you. She treated me like family. She genuinely cared for every one she met and never was shy about her Faith in Jesus Christ. Mark and I would often talk about how blessed we were to have such great parents. Frances will be deeply missed here on this earth but we know she is now reunited with her husband and family that went before her and we will get to see her again in Heaven.
