“ *When I think of frances, I think, "fun". She and Jerial were among my parents best friends and so much a part of my youthful years. I remember heading for down town Tulsa on Saturday mornings, shopping in all the stores, having drip beef sandwiches for lunch, and going to a movie. I think of "Ham Loaf" and yummy desserts. I think of heading to Ft. Gibson lake, to the cabin on Hickory Creek, every week end, in my early teens. We escaped into another world of swimming, skiing, and boating; No one could squeal louder than my mom and Frances, when splashed with cold water! Frances was my 2nd momma when I needed one. She loved going and doing, and my family, all, loved her.
Much love to Jerial and Barbara and the whole family,
Judy Roberts*
