

Francine Czekalski

September 19, 1949 - June 27, 2023

Fran Czekalski was born on September 19, 1949, the daughter of Casimir Czekalski and Jane Mowery Czekalski in Chicago, Illinois. She was one of five children.

Fran found joy in many things during her life. She especially enjoyed her work at the Grand Canyon, where she experienced many unique adventures and met her life time partner, "Bud".

She also enjoyed her years at The Ranch, where she planned parties for guests and took care of the many animals that lived there. She had a soft spot for all animals but would often tell stories about the horses, chickens, ducks and her favorite Oreo eating pig.

She was a very creative person and a talented woodworker. She also enjoyed reading, listening to music such as The Monkees and George Strait. She would often wind down by watching a variety of sports or her favorite show, Jeopardy.

Fran was very loved by all those that were blessed to have known her.

She is survived by:
