“ Many of my cherished memories of Dad were about how he made ordinary things wonderful and fun. When I was 10 years old, he gave me a necklace for Christmas. I don't remember the necklace but I do vividly remember the packaging. He hid the necklace in the fuselage of a biplane that he made out of cardboard and gift wrap. It was amazing!

“ Hello Linda and Family
I will miss Frank seeing him each time our paths crossed he was always a positive spirit.
His artistic gift and passion for his Toy Making and giving speaks highly of how big his heart and talents are.
He will be dearly missed.
Mike and I send our condolences.
Love Mike and Sylvia Mitchell
