

Geneva Jean Duggan

September 28, 1923 - October 9, 2023

Geneva Jean Coburn Duggan passed away on October 9th after recently celebrating her 100th birthday.

Born September 28, 1923, in Carroll County, Missouri to Harry and Lean Coburn, she graduated from Chillicothe High School and Business College in Missouri. She married John Carl Duggan in Chillicothe on May 2nd, 1943. In 1951, she moved with him and their growing family to the Tulsa area to pursue work and community engagement for the last seventy-two years. Geneva has been a lifelong Methodist and has attended and served in several different Tulsa congregations.

Geneva served as the Tax Department Executive Assistant at Deloitte, where she made many longtime friends.

Geneva was adventurous and an avid traveler throughout her life. She visited many international countries in addition to each of the 50 states. She also loved playing bridge with the same group of friends for over 50 years.

Geneva is preceded in death by her husband, Carl Duggan, and her grandson, Duggan John Phillips.

She is survived by the family who loved her; her son, Steve (and wife Ginni) Duggan; her daughter Leah (and husband John) Phillips; her son Craig

Duggan; her daughter Melissa Duggan Herring; four grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren. All of Geneva's grandchildren and great-grandchildren confirm that she was the GGOAT (greatest grandma of all time).

“ Leah, I'm so sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. I have fond memories of when our families would get together. I especially remember your Mom letting us decorate Christmas cookies at your house off 11th St. She was a fun lady!
