“ Aunt Hazel, Athene, Eloise Uncle Hal service was a beautiful tribute to him. Wish I could there in person, but so thankful I could watch it online, here in Virginia. He was a good man, and God is blessed to have him in his care now. My love and thoughts and prayers go out you ,his 3 women he waited on.

My favorite memory of Uncle Hal was when him and Aunt Hazel got married.I was only 8, and remember in the reception line he kissed my cheek. I was so embarrassed, and all laughed about it. Was a little girl who thought her new uncle was the greatest, he married my beautiful aunt. Love and prayers to you

“ Every time I would walk in the house to see Athene there was Hal in his chair. He always had a big smile and a Hello! He would try to come up with my name. It never mattered. He knew my face and that was priceless. He's was as sweet as he could be. He had more fans on Facebook than he knew. Everyone loved Happy Hal posts! You are all in my prayers!
