

Helen McCrimmon

January 11, 1930 - July 2, 2019

Helen Lucille Lewis McCrimmon was born January 11, 1930 in Cache, Oklahoma, the fourth child of a prominent Oklahoma rancher Leo Lewis and his wife Wynne Lewis.

Helen loved life and it loved her back. She was a legendary hostess and a wonderful cook. Giving dinner parties for her many and wide ranging friends was a delight to her and a gift to them. She had impeccable taste and a keen eye for beautiful furnishings and antique rugs. She worked until the end of her life providing design work for her clients.

Helen gained two wonderful daughters, Amy and Cissy, when she married John McCrimmon who has predeceased her.

For the last eight years Helen lived in Broken Arrow, OK with her loving and faithful sister, Mary Sue Logan. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband John. and her two siblings Leo Burch Lewis and Pauline Christmas.

“ Helen was a lovely, intelligent, and accomplished lady. During my trips to Tulsa, I looked forward to visiting with her because she was always quick to laugh and tell wonderful stories from her life experiences. I will miss her. Bless you Helen and thank you for making my visits so memorable. Katherine Palmer, Atlanta, GA.
