Herb I'm do sorry we never got to have that cup of coffee that we talked about. Most of all I'm sorry I didn't take the time out of my day to have a conversation with you and brighten your day. You told me once the worst part about getting old is the lonely part!

Again I'm so sorry that I was too busy to walk 5 houses down to look in on our elderly neighbors!

I just walked by today and saw a for sale sign in your yard!!! I realized at that moment you were no longer lonely and you are home with your beautiful wife I know you missed so much!

Herb... please forgive me for not being a better neighbor! You taught me to make a better effort with acknowledging our elderly generations. They are all so precious and we should all do a better job t make them not feel invisible in their last years on earth!
