

Jaaziel Gutierrez

March 12, 2022

Jaaziel Gutierrez was born Wednesday, February 17, 2016 the son of Karla Talamantes Gutierrez in Tulsa, Oklahoma. Jaaziel was a sweet boy with a smile that lit up the room. He gave family so much love and joy.

All three of these precious family members went on to be with their Lord on March 12, 2022.

The loss of these three loved ones is something that can't be undone. The family must live with it, but through this tragedy will come triumph and a slow healing that will turn into something positive and beautiful. Through this tragedy and healing, the family can become the best version of who they were created to be by God; scarred but beautiful, strong and unstoppable in their drive to follow their life-long dreams.

The memories of Manuela, Yaretzy and Jaaziel will continue to live on in the lives and dreams of those who knew them and loved them.

They are survived by:

“ I only had the honor of meeting jaaziel a small handful of times, but in those short instances he made the biggest impact on me. The love he had for his mother was undeniable and his bond with his sister made my heart flutter. He was so sweet and gentle and pure, a soul that was far greater than anyone in this world deserved. His life was cut way too short, but if anyone could leave a legacy behind in just 6 years, this magnificent baby boy could. He had a kind, graceful, yet strong and protective disposition. His laugh and his smile were contagious and radiance can barely began to describe his glowing personality. His spirit is alive in everyone of us as we carry on in life with love and compassion for others, as he did.

“ Por que su llegada a este mundo endulzo nuestra vida y con esa forma tan carismatica de ser nos enamoro y con su sonrisa no alegraba la vida.es por eso que en su partida nos dejo un gran vacio que no abra forma de llenarlo pero si tenemos tan bellos momentos por cual recordarlo. Mi niño fue un angelito terrenal y hoy en un angelito que a tenido que regresar asu lugar donde deberia estar alado del señor donde nunca sufrira! Te amo mi amorcito.
