

Jack Christian

October 1, 1942 - April 5, 2025

Jack Lee Christian was born on October 1, 1942, in Wewoka, Oklahoma, to parents Warren and Iva Christian (Joplin). He passed away on April 5, 2025, in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma.

As a child, Jack lived in many parts of the United States. His family moved frequently, and Jack grew up experiencing life in 36 different states. He graduated from high school in Glasgow, Montana, before returning to Oklahoma for college. Jack earned a bachelor's degree from the University of Oklahoma and an MBA from the University of Tulsa. On December 18, 1971, he married his sweetheart, Lois Ann Christian (Gay).

Jack began his career in the oil and gas industry, dedicating many years to Amoco Oil Company, where he worked on numerous projects around the globe. He later served as an internal auditor for the United States Department of the Interior, Minerals Management Services, until his retirement.

Outside of work, Jack found joy in spending time with his family, serving his church, and enjoying the great outdoors. He loved boating, camping, and cheering passionately as a proud alumnus of The University of Oklahoma's football and athletic teams. Boomer Sooner!

Jack will be dearly missed by those blessed to have had him in their lives. He is survived by his loving wife, Lois Christian; his children, Bryan Christian and Elizabeth Woodson; his son-in-law, Lance Woodson; and his cherished grandchildren: Kyia Woodson, Paxton Christian, and Annabelle Woodson. He is also survived by his brother, Bob Christian, and sister-in-law, Jana

Christian; his sister-in-law, Polly Christian; his sister-in-law, Sharon Gay; and numerous beloved nieces, nephews, and extended family members.

Jack was preceded in death by his parents, Warren and Iva Christian; his brother, Fred Christian; his stepson, Darrel Drake; his brother-in-law, Gerald Gay; and other treasured extended family members.
