“ Jack will be missed beyond words. One of our favorite memories would be every Christmas we would buy something nice for him and Norma and take it to the house and visit. He seemed like he couldn't wait to open it like a kid at Christmas. He always let My son and I hunt and wouldn't take any amount of money for it. We will always treasure these memories with both of them. So sorry for your loss Norma

“ Oh My Gosh! Where to begin. Jack was the epitome of all things good. Always with a mischievous smile, beautiful laugh, nothing but pure honest goodness to the bone. A big teddy bear, ready to give all he had to anyone in need. He was more like a brother to me and my siblings. Heaven has gained an exceptional Angel! Jack, you are so missed more than you can imagine. God bless you!

“ Jack more like a brother than cousin, as kids we would run all over Uncle Cecil & Aunt Irene's property & Grandpa Harper's. Last thing we heard don't go in creek or ponds, well thats first places we headed and did get wet!! We tried stay away long enough let clothes dry so they wouldn't know!! They asked each time "did you all get in water, "NO!!" Usually didn't get too much trouble, they would never say too much, we thought we had pulled a fast one. And as long as warm we always got wet somewhere. Going miss u sooo much, your grin when teasing everyone, easy going attitude. You and Norma always make everyone welcome & comfortable in your home.

God Bless you cousin !!!!
