“ Lois, Sandra and Pam,

We are saddened to learn of your loss.

I remember when you moved onto the Randeau farm in the 60s, the visiting in your home etc.. Jack was a man of strong moral principles and Christian convictions. I've always respected Jack for that. Visiting with Jack in the shop was always a learning experience for me. Of the few times I had that opportunity, he would show me something he was working or how a piece of equipment worked with such passion. In reminiscing, I recall when our area was plagued with home burglaries and "Inspector's" efforts to quell that in organizing the CB club as a neighborhood watch team.

We pray that you are blessed with God's peace and grace.

“ Just found Jack's obituary on this website. So sorry for your family's loss. I remember him and Lois coming to my parents' music show on Fridays. I'm sure that they all had good times together and hope you have very special memories to help you through this time in your lives.

Sincerely,

Sandy & Mike Lamberson

P.S. I'm sure my sisters would send their sympathy also. Sorry we didn't hear about his passing till now.
