“ We would like to express our condolences to the Crow family. We pray that God would wrap His arms of love around the Crow family to comfort all of you through this difficult time. Jim was a wonderful Christian man. He was just a swell guy to know, we will greatly miss him. Jim would many times come through the door at The Assembly Sanctuary where Marcia and I are ushers; we always looked forward to getting a chance to visit with him. We had some coincidences about our lives and family. Our weddings were on the same day, same year, the exact same time, and same city. My wife and Jim both graduated from Oral Roberts University a year apart. Marcia and I will truly miss you, Brother Jim!
