“ I live far away from Broken Arrow now but I clearly remember Jamie and how he made us all smile and laugh. I am saddened to hear the news. He was a talented goalkeeper, a fun person, a good teammate. Rest, Jamie. T Strombeck

“ We first met Jamie working out at Gerald's Gym. What a good looking kid with an award winning smile! We were so sad to hear of his short lived life. We went to his memorial on Monday only to find that there was no place to park and the chapel was at capacity. So we didn't get to attend, but what we did get was a new perspective. We had not seen him for years, and it was evident that he has squeezed a lot of life out of his time here. He made a huge impact on his world. We are not surprised, but comforted in knowing that his life was well lived, not short lived. To Fred, Maggie and the entire family, we are so sorry for your loss. Rest in Peace friend, we know we will see you again!

As one of the more level headed younger Airmen I've worked with, it was a pleasure to have served with him. He was a friend when he had to be and a leader when needed. There was never a question whether or not he loved his family, especially his babies! As a new mother at the time, he and I would have long conversations about parenthood when his son was one the way. As difficult as this is for all who knew him, he is watching over his loved ones! Sleep well my friend! You will truly be missed 💕
