“ JCDuensing and his wife were my Youth Group Counselors at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Broken Arrow, in the 60's. I have fond memories from days of camping out with him and our youth group at Tenkiller Lake and Park. We ate breakfast cooked by Karen, his sister, and their family. We learned to ski behind their boat, spent time fishing and swimming. He was always kind to our group of teenagers and we loved him! ❤️ Sarah Kaspar Jensen

“ JC was a man that never had anything bad to say about anyone. Marilyn and I spent many Christmas and regular Church services with JC and Shirley for many years. One of JC's passions was playing pool at the BA senior center. We had so much fun. Rest in Peace my Christian friend.
