

James Cameron Gabel

October 31, 2003 - June 20, 2025

With broken hearts, we announce the passing of our beloved son, who left this world far too soon on June 20, 2025, in Tulsa, Oklahoma—the same city where he was born.

Born on October 31, 2003, Cameron brought light, laughter, and love into our lives from the very beginning. He had a kind soul, a bright spirit, and a heart that touched everyone he met. Whether through his smile, his humor, or his loyalty, he made a lasting impression on all who knew him.

Cameron was preceded in death by his older brother Devon and cousin Jacob. He is survived by his loving mother and father, Jennifer Colleen Lawson and Brandon Lee Gabel who cherished him beyond words, and his devoted siblings, who will forever hold his memory close; Amber, Adon, Asa, Ava and Riley. Together, they shared a bond that time and loss can never break.

Though his time with us was brief, the love he gave and the memories he created will remain in our hearts forever.

A service to celebrate Cameron's life will be held at Hayhurst Funeral Home Chapel in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, Saturday, June 28 at 11:00am. We invite all who knew and loved him to join us in remembering the joy he brought to our lives.

Rest peacefully, sweet boy. You are deeply loved and will be missed more than words can express.

“ Thinking about the time we spent working on the cabin, just the Boys and their Dad's. Four wheeling, Argo rides, campfires, making memories. We were just laughing about the time you boys stapled pictures to the walls from a certain magazine found buried behind the sheet rock. You are a pursued and loved child of GOD. Rest in HIS eternal peace, Nephew. Love, Uncle Ryan.
