“Doc Garrett entered our lives in the early 1950's. With Doc's good natured personality, he was an instant friend. In 1956, Sandra and I were fortunate he became "family" as well. He and my oldest sister, Vera, married and raised three amazing children: Vickie, Gregg and Vonda, who we deeply love and cherish.

We feel blessed to have maintained our friendship throughout the years and share memories with he and Fran. Doc was on of the kindest friends you could have in life. We enjoyed great conversations on everything from where to get together for a meal, to bragging on kids and grand kids, and discussing how many cars we had bought and sold throughout the years.

Doc was world-class. He always asked about his nieces and their families. Conversation was never about him or problems he was enduring at the time. In all our years of knowing Doc, we never heard him say an unkind word. He was a man of integrity coupled with a compassionate spirit.

We already miss him dearly - and his great smile, caring attitude, and unwavering commitment to his family and his faith. Our thoughts and prayers are with all who loved him - He was special.

Lovingly,

Earl and Sandy Wakefield
