I really loved Uncle Jim and the stories he could tell. I vividly remember him being at my house when I was about 4 years old and pushing me on the swing and chasing me around the yard playing with me. Say hi to my mama and daddy Uncle Jim (and grandma and grandpa too!!). Til we meet again!! <3

“ Jim was best brother a guy could ask for. I will miss his trips to cedar vale and eating at the hill top cafe. Then we would go riding around and visit. Then back to the cafe for coffee before he headed back. Miss you Jim. I didn't say it enough, but I'm saying it now, love you.

“ I Thought he was the coolest brother ever. He had a 58 Chevy convertible and later on a 64 Chevy impala. 2 of the coolest cars ever. I remember when he joined the U. S. Air Force. I thought i would never see him again. RIP my hero Jim Mattocks. From his little brother 14 years younger. Oscar Mattocks
