

James "Bill" Stone Jr

March 17, 1935 - August 7, 2022

James "Bill" Stone, Jr. went to be with his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on Sunday, August 7, 2022. He was born on Sunday, March 17, 1935 in Coweta, Oklahoma the son of James F. and Florene (Dykes) Stone, Sr. He was 87 years of age.

Bill was a 1953 graduate of Broken Arrow High School. He graduated from Bible Training Institute in Cleveland, Tennessee and was ordained through the Church of God of Prophecy. Bill married the former Miss LaVon Yocham on September 25, 1953 in Coweta, Oklahoma. He ministered the gospel for over 70 years, serving as Church of God of Prophecy Overseer in Oklahoma, California and Texas. Prior to being in full time ministry he had worked at the DX Refinery, Supervisor at Braden Winch and was employed by National Tank (CE Natco). Bill's life was always built around ministry, but he loved the family times. He and LaVon were members of Christian Family Center (Weer). The family requests memorials to Youth Camps at the Church of God of Prophecy.

“ Integrity beyond question. At the top of my list of mentors...and friends. Bill would almost always say goody bye to me with “see you later cuz”. Yes, I will “see you later cuz”.

“ A wonderful friend, and coworker at Hayhurst Funeral Home. Bill sold me his GMC high-top van in 2002, and later would always say I stole it from him with a big laugh. Twenty years later I'm still driving that van, and remembering my special friend Bill Stone.
