

Jamie Campbell

August 23, 1948 - February 3, 2020

Jamie Campbell of Broken Arrow passed away Monday, February 3, 2020 at the age of 71. She died peacefully in her home after several months of health challenges and complications.

She was a devoted wife to her husband Gary of 50 years, a loving mother, proud grandparent, and a caring and beloved friend to her extended family and friends. Family was the joy of her life, and she was blessed to be a homemaker during her two children's upbringing, and enjoyed being involved in the schools and activities of her family and the community.

Jamie was born on August 23, 1948 in Altadena, California to James and Reece Miller. She married her beloved husband Gary on January 10, 1970 in Whittier, California and moved to Broken Arrow in 1985. Her favorite activities included enjoying folk music, crocheting and sewing, traveling with her friends and family and road trips with her husband in their retirement years.

She is survived by her husband Gary, her daughter Elizabeth and her husband Patrick Phillips of Broken Arrow, son James Campbell of Spring, Texas, and grandchildren Virginia Reece and Trevor Phillips of Broken Arrow. She was preceded in death by her parents James and Reece Miller. Jamie will be laid to rest at Park Grove Cemetery in Broken Arrow. Her life will be celebrated by close friends and family in small private ceremony on Thursday February 6th.

“ Oh my goodness.....Gary, Beth I am in such shock! Far too many years of laughter tears to share. Jamie you were such a beautiful woman inside and out. May GOD's arm be around each of you to comfort you and give you peace. Your smile and laughter and your HUGE QT mug will be missed. Mark and Nickie Silva

“ I would get to school early just to have conversations with Miss Jamie. She always made me feel included and a part of the group. She would talk so lovingly about her family and all their accomplishments. Family was her #1 priority. I admired her so very much. My thoughts and prayers go out to all of her family and friends.
