

Jamie Lou Ferrel-Kirby

December 12, 1954 - December 23, 2023

Jamie Lou Ferrel-Kirby went to be with the Lord Saturday, December 23, 2023. Jamie was born December 12, 1954 in Houston, Texas to Jimmy and Tommie Vernon.

Jamie was an outgoing child, with a fiery spirit. She was dependable and caring from an early age. She graduated from Broken Arrow high school in 1973 and worked as an office manager for 20 years and a medical biller for 20 years. Jamie first and foremost prided herself on her three sons, and made clear the four were inseparable. Jamie was very adventurous, enjoying traveling, scuba diving, and water skiing. The last couple of years her favorite thing to do was lay in the sun on the sandy beach with a drink in her hand. That was one of her absolute favorite spots. She loved to go to concerts and lit up every room she entered. She loved being a mother and grandmother. Jamie is survived by her husband, David Kirby, mother, Tommie Lou Vernon, sons Chabonie (Robin), Dakota (Sarah) and Brandon (Paulina) all of Broken Arrow, three grandchildren, Colton, Amelia, and Aliyah, her niece, Nikkia Stout, and her brother Clint.

“ Jamie and I meet about 43 years ago and have been friends from the first time We talked. She was the friend that if you didn't see or talk to each other you picked up where you last talked and continued forward as if no time was lost. She was truly a great person and friend. She loved her family and friends. Miss you friend.

“ Jamie was like a sister to me. We’ve shared many good times together during our 28 years as friends. She was the best mom to the boys they were her life. But she knows that they are happy in life and she will be at peace. Don’t know what I’ll do without her. Heaven gained a beautiful Angel fly high Jamie I love you.

“ I've known Jamie since school. Her face always lighted up with that great smile. Such a great encourager. We messaged a lot about hip replacements we went thru it about a month apart. Big hugs when we saw each other. I will miss you Jamie. Love, prayers for comfort to her boys and all of us that loved her ❤️🙏❤️
