“ I grew up down the street from Jason in country aire. He would come to our house and play with my brother and I. He was such a neat guy. Lost touch with him after high school but I have seen that he has had a great life. I'm sad to hear that it was taken so you.

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. I cannot even begin to understand what you're going through right now I am praying God will grant all of his loved ones a certain individual peace beyond possibly all understanding. Each of you need to know

Jason was an exceptionally bright and respectful person. In the two years I was fortunate to work in the same area, he never missed an opportunity to greet me, shake my hand or ask how I was. I personally enjoyed his candor, regalness and his all to charming wit.

Admittedly there were times I would walk by Jason's desk purposely because I always knew I was going to get a Jason Million Dollar Smile and no matter where I was in my thoughts - I smiled inside and towards others. I will miss his kindness, humor, candor, smile, commitment to all he put himself into, intelligence and thought provoking ways as he peered into challenges.

The last time I passed him we saluted each other and yes I got the Jason Million Dollar Smile. Mr & Mrs Tom and Linda Emmert, its obvious you did a very good job raising Jason - he represented you both well always. To all of Jason's family, I will be praying for each of you a peace, a special peace to bring courage to face the days which will turn into weeks ahead. All of your loving memories to forever hold in your hearts.

*In HIS Love,
Rich Lloyd

“ My sincere condolences to the family. I was saddened to hear of Jason's passing. Jason and I were co-workers when he worked at ConocoPhillips. He always had a smile on his face and I often remember some of the things he said that made me smile. There are no words that can take away the pain, but I will pray that you will have healing and peace as time passes.

I worked with Jason in two different groups at Verizon. He had a quick wit and great attitude. He will be missed. My condolences to his family.

Can't believe he is gone. I used to see him at work gym, break room and used to joke with him about not staying overnight at work
