

Jayden Tsotsoros

November 6, 2000 - June 29, 2025

Jayden Alexander Tsotsoros of Broken Arrow was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma on Monday, November 6, 2000, to parents, Chris and Jessica (Deonier) called him home unexpectedly on Sunday, June 29, 2025, at the young age of 24.

Tsotsoros. God

Jayden's life was filled with so much love—love that he gave and love that he received through the many relationships with family members and friends whom he cherished. The light Jayden brought to the world will surely be missed.

Jayden graduated from Broken Arrow High School in 2019. During high school, he was involved in the arts and loved singing and dancing with the BAHS Show Choir.

Having completed an Associate's Degree at Tulsa Community College, Jayden was looking forward to continuing his education at Northeastern State University majoring in Mechanical Engineering. He enjoyed being outdoors and had various hobbies including fishing, foraging, cooking, gardening and tinkering...what became known as "Jaydening".

Jayden's life was way too short, but it was rich—and his presence provided richness in the lives of others. His family, who will cherish their memories with

Jayden, includes his parents, Chris and Jessica Tsotsoros of Broken Arrow; brother

Logan Tsotsoros and wife Allison of Pryor; paternal grandparents Pat and Jan Tsotsoros of Broken Arrow; maternal grandparents Toni Deonier and Jim Cheek of Broken Arrow; his extended family of aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends who became family to him; and the circle of friends near and far who embraced him.

Jayden was preceded in death by his grandfather, Larry Deonier; great grandparents, Dick and Ethel Deonier; great uncle and aunt, Jack and Sandy Montgomery, and great aunt, Joanie Tsotsoros.

“ My memories of Jayden were of him and my kiddos running around the church together. When their parents were working, the kids had a blast just playing together. Jayden and Katelyn came around the corner in opposite directions and Katelyn’s tooth went into Jayden’s forehead. Funny now but wasn’t as much then. My last memory was the family coming to Dallas to find cool stuff for Jayden’s room for his 16th bday, had to make a stop at torches for Jaybo! We love and miss you!

“ I remember Jayden swimming in Sandy's pool in Broken Arrow, perhaps back in the '90s. The next time I saw him, he had grown into a sweet, intelligent man with a generous heart and a mind full of innovative ideas. Every word he spoke reflected his sincerity, curiosity, kindness, and brilliance. He truly was a gift from the universe. I only wish he could have stayed with us longer. I find comfort in knowing he's now reunited with the loved ones who went before him.

“ I first met Jayden when he came to work for Torchys tacos, he always had that signature smile and great attitude, was always nice and polite and would do whatever was asked of him I always joked with him about his bartender skills and we would share a laugh, definitely gonna miss that smile!!!

“ Dear Chris, Jessica and Logan,
I was so grieved to hear this and am praying for you daily. So many memories of our children at NH on Sundays and in CR Wednesday nights. I can't begin to imagine the grief at such a horrible loss. Please let me know if I can do anything for you. Love in Christ, Pam Fleming (Nap)

“ I knew Jayden on the fringe, until he and I went out together to Eerie Abbey Ales one late September night in 2023. It was fantastic, and I couldn't get over the unique way he thought about the world. We talked about education, entrepreneurship, and drinking, which frankly covered most of life's topics, I suppose. I was excited to watch him grow and see what he was going to do with his life, and I deeply regret not staying in communication with him after we left the area. Jayden you were loved, you are loved, you are missed, and your short stay on this globe will have ripple after ripple because you freely shared of yourself. Thanks for being a friend.
