Genevieve Ernestine (Lowrance) Ray was born in Wainwright, Oklahoma to W.L. Lowrance and Maggie (Hines) Lowrance June 23, 1927. She entered those pearly gates on Friday, January 1, 2021, in Tulsa, Oklahoma at the age of 93. Funeral Services are under the direction of Hayhurst Funeral Home. Genevieve was known to all who loved her as “Jean”. She married and started her family. Later, she completed her GED and was very proud of her accomplishment. She had three daughters, six grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. She loved each of them dearly and individually. She loved spending time with them and sewing gifts for each of them. Jean liked to sew and made corn bags for everyone. Then, when it was necessary she learned to sew masks.

One of Jean’s hobbies was playing Bridge with the ladies. Her time was also spent participating in different Bible Studies. “ She was always involved with her children and grandchildren. I am blessed to know her children as they “kept” her involved with them through many visits to her in the home. May comfort settle over her loved ones knowing she a beautiful mansion in God’s kingdom now
