

Jean Treat

September 15, 1930 - June 14, 2026

Jean L. Treat was born in Decatur, Arkansas on Monday, September 15, 1930 to parents O.C. and Marie (Plank) Mitchell. She left her home in Afton surrounded by loving family on Sunday, June 15, 2026. She was 95 years old. One of three children, Jean had a twin brother, James and a sister, Dorothy. She was a high school graduate of Siloam Springs. She met a kind gentleman by the name of Harold Treat. After some time, Harold proposed to Jean and they were married on Sunday, August 13, 1950. Jean was afforded the opportunity to be a homemaker and 'stay-at-home mom'. Spending time with family, mainly the grandchildren/great grandchildren, was at the top of her favorite things.

To describe Jean, content and practical are the words that come to mind. She had a passion for sports and especially OU football. She was a member of the Red Hat Society and the garden club. She was a good seamstress and proudly kept up with technology.

After his retirement Harold and Jean moved up to Grand Lake. Jean attended church regularly whenever she was able. It was very important to her to honor God with her faithfulness.

Family to keep her memories alive,

Children, Nancy Spencer and Lonnie, Carol VanDolah and Jeff

Grandchildren, Greg Spencer and Ashley, Grant Spencer and Tiffany, Spencer VanDolah and Libby, Mark Treat and Jennifer, Mike Treat,

Amber Treat, April Bailey

Great-Grandchildren, Brody Spencer, Brayden Spencer, Audrey Spencer, Leo Spencer, Luca Spencer, Sloane VanDolah, Mayer VanDolah, Jake Treat, Sam Treat, Millie Treat, Edan Luper, Darby Bailey, Leila Bailey, Quinton Eckhart-Treat

Preceded in death by parents, Orla and Marie Mitchell, husband, Harold Treat, son, Jack Treat, twin brother, James Mitchell and sister, Dorothy Rogers.
