“ I became acquainted with Jeanne when she was a volunteer at the South Broken Arrow Library. She was so cheerful and helpful with lots of energy. I was amazed at her sharpness and memory. We went to Bible Study Fellowship together and she always had to find my car for me in the. Parking lot. Everybody has a white car!

I worked with Jeanne At the Broken arrow Medical Center, which would later become St Francis Broken arrow.

She was a very pleasant person to be around and sharp as a tack. She was the cashier there for years and also volunteered. Her sense of humor was a pleasure and her kindness was second to none.

It has been an honor to call her my friend. While I mourn her loss, I celebrate the fact that she is with the love of her life. I loved on the days that I would see Bob take her to work, he would get out of the car walk around open her door and give her a kiss goodbye. When he picked her up after work he would Always open her door for her.

When she had a free moment at work, she was more than willing to brag on her children and their spouses. It was a pleasure listening to how proud she was of everyone of them. I did have the pleasure of meeting David, Mark and Vicki, and Clay's wife. I could see right away why she was so proud of everyone of them.

I hope everybody in this lifetime has the kind of love that Bob and Jeanne had for each other.

It was like watching a Hallmark movie live right in front of you.

Jeanne I hope you know how much we all loved you and admired you.
