

Jeff Gill

January 13, 1956 - January 14, 2026

Our Beloved Cato Jeffrey “JEFF” Gill of Broken Arrow, went from island paradise here on earth to eternal paradise with his savior Jesus Christ on January 14th 2026. Jeff left this earth doing what he loved, traveling with his beloved wife Brenda, of almost 50 years. He was snorkeling and marveling at God’s creation when HE called him home.

Jeff was born on January 13, 1956, in Ardmore, Oklahoma to Ben Tom and Helen Gill. Upon graduation from high school he moved to Dallas and attended Dallas Christian College where he met his wife Brenda and received his degree in ministerial studies. He spent his life in Hugoton, Kansas and Beaver, Perkins, and Broken Arrow Oklahoma, sharing the love of Jesus with all he encountered as a minister of the gospel. He also had a reputation for spending time on the golf course and for his ability to fix almost anything or rig it!

He loved being G’Pa to his grandkids, singing songs he made up as he went, telling terrible GPa jokes, playing any kind of ball with the kids, attending their activities, reading Bible stories and giving quizzes over FaceTime, and being willing to do all the things G’Pas do. After retiring Jeff made it a priority to travel and visit national parks and longtime friends who no longer lived close by. He thoroughly enjoyed driving all over and admiring God’s handiwork. Jeff truly loved others and loved his family deeply.

He leaves behind many who also loved him including his wife Brenda, his son Chad Gill of Broken Arrow, his daughter Christine Hammond and her husband Jeremy of Saint Simons Island Georgia, and His daughter Cassie Gill and her wife Maryruth Diaz of Edmonton, Alberta and 5 beloved grandchildren Caleb, Chloe, Liam, Callie, Colin. He also leaves behind siblings Glenda Walker of Murphreesboro, TN, Anne and husband Willie Getchell of Banning CA, John and wife Barbara Gill of Ardmore OK, James (Jim) and wife Lori Gill of Perkins OK and many more cousins, nieces, nephews and friends who felt like family. Jeff is predeceased by his father Ben Tom Sr., mother Helen West Gill, and siblings Ben Tom Gill Jr., Mary Baber, Louise O'Donnell, Charles Gill, Theodore (Ted) Gill, and George Gill.

A Celebration of Life Service for Jeff will be held on Saturday, January 31st, 11:00 am at Northside Christian Church, 1221 N Elm Place in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma.

“ Jeff was my pastor when I was younger. Also, he allowed me to help type out the bulletins for Sunday Services and teach one of the lower grade Sunday school classes. He fit in with our family so well that you thought he was actually one of our members. Prayers for the entire Gill family and all he knew Jeff.

“ Jeff was such a big part of my conversion story. Before becoming a believer, I had ample opportunity to get to know him while working for him. It was clear he loved people by the way he interacted with me and ministered to me in a way that was warm and welcoming.

When God saw fit to hand me and Shannon a challenge beyond our own capabilities in order to bring us to Himself, Jeff was right there. He and Brenda cared for us in a way only true followers of Christ can. Not only did he help me re-tile a floor while Shannon and I were in the middle of immense grief, but he also baptized me and continued to help me along in my faith journey. The first time I prayed out loud in a group was at his request at the end of our life group one evening.

I'm so grateful to God for Jeff and his ministry and friendship. I know he was welcomed home with much rejoicing.

Jeff and Brenda were so gracious and kind when we would come back to visit Northside. So surprised and saddened when we heard Jeff left and meant his lord.

Brenda you are in our prayers for your lost along with family and children.

May God's comfort be with you all.

“Jeff and Brenda were our neighbors in Perkins OK back when we were all raising our children. We went to Church together, played games and went to the movies in Cushing. We will miss that sweet spirit and never ending patience.

“Jeff and Brenda were our first Life Group leaders when we joined Sunnybrook Church. He was so welcoming and made us feel comfortable sharing. We immediately became friends. His love of God and people is how Jesus has asked us to live. He will be missed by many.
