

Jenna Robertson

July 16, 1982 - June 12, 2023

Our Precious Jenna, age 40, was set free from limitations of her disabilities on June 12, 2023. She was received into Heaven with a new and perfect spiritual body, able to enjoy everything to the fullest! Her first vision was of her Heavenly Father's face, and her first steps were on streets of gold.

Jenna was born in Sapulpa, Oklahoma on July 16, 1982 to Jimmy and Marsha Robertson. She attended special education classes in Moore Public Schools for 12 years where she had many wonderful ladies who worked with her.

Jenna had a special friend, Brian, from school days.

Jenna's favorite activities were all things "Getting Pretty". She liked to wear scented lotions and sprays. And, more recently, she enjoyed wearing "Her Jewels" to match all of her clothes. She loved all the hugs and kisses she could get, and could give tight squeezes too. Jenna's favorite music was country and children singing Christian songs. Her favorite TV show was Lawrence Welk.

Reuniting with Jenna in Heaven are her grandparents: Dillard and Eliza Robertson and Sam and Marie Anderson, five uncles, four aunts and one cousin.

Left to treasure her memory are her parents, brother, Ryan Robertson and wife Leah, two uncles, two aunts, many cousins and friends.

“ Jenna, I'm sitting with the news of your passing, grieving for myself and all of your family and friends but especially your devoted mom & dad & brother . . . gentleness and quiet ways were your hallmarks . . . You loved and were loved without question . . . Coming with strong purpose, you changed all our hearts for the better . . . Your tiny self found ways to inspire others like no one else to be better human beings . . . I'll never forget you, Jenna . . . You were our angel unaware . . .
