“ Thank you all for your wonderful words and prayers. I have been overwhelmed with everyone's post. The over the top meals that everyone has brought and taking care of the lawn (one thing Jerry was worrying over). The girls and I are so thankful for everyone's love. Even as we don't understand why he was taken so early in life I have seen God all the way through this process.

He took a job in September last year that had wonderful benefits and disability so he did not have to worry about his shop that he did love so much and I didn't have to move everything without him here. God was definitely there.

On Tuesday when they ask us to leave the room our dear friend from Skelly Drive, Jim Barnes stepped off the elevator and was a wonderful comfort.

On Wednesday when we were making decisions, I really wanted him close to his family at Memorial Park. Hayhurst Funeral Home had been contacted by a family that were wanting to sell 2 lots in the exact section where his family is that was sold out years ago. He will be on the other side of the sidewalk from his Grandma and Grandpa Webb and not far from everyone else. I asked the lady about why they were selling them and she said they meant to several months ago but just didn't get it done and now she understands why.

God is good all of the time.

Jerry was not an exclusive kind of guy so the graveside is open to anyone that wants to come but if it's too hot I completely understand if you can't come to that part but I hope everyone can make it to the memorial service at 2pm at Liberty Church. It will just be Jerry! He kept us on our toes for sure!

“ Jerry always greeted everyone at church with a huge smile on his face. I'll miss that smile every Sunday morning and seeing him in his goofy holiday vests and shirts. He definitely had his own special style. Jerry, your contagious smile and laugh will be missed by many!

I will miss his warm handshake and big smile, a funny story or fun story about something that had happened that week. Like Rob you could count on him in the foyer making people more comfortable or uncomfortably feeling loved as he gave them a hard time.
