

Jessie Pulliam

May 21, 1938 - December 24, 2024

Jessie Mae Pulliam was born on May 2, 1938 in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma, the daughter of Jess and Sarah Mae (Hall) Coody. She passed from this life on December 24, 2024.

The former Miss Jessie Coody graduated in 1956 from Broken Arrow High School where she met the love of her life. After graduation, they decided to spend the rest of their life together and she married Thomas Audley “Tom” Pulliam on June 1, 1957 in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma.

Jessie began working as a key punch operator for Shell Oil and Braden Winch, but main job was that of mom and housewife. In her spare time, she enjoyed painting, sewing and scrapbooking. Jessie and Tom belonged to Clean Air Sam’s Camping Club for 30 years where they hosted many monthly picnics, outings and adventures. Some of their other favorite things to do were taking family trips to Branson during the fourth of July, where they owned a time share. They celebrated with their family the fireworks, many entertaining shows and great food. She always liked the adventure of trying new places to eat.

Those that knew her and were blessed to have her in their lives, will miss her.
