

Joe Marquette

January 6, 1937 - November 5, 2016

Services Pending.

Joe Marquette, a wire service photographer who drew notice for his arresting images of athletes and political leaders and was part of the Associated Press team that won a Pulitzer Prize for coverage of President Bill Clinton's impeachment hearings, died Nov. 5 at his home in Tulsa. He was 79.

The cause was respiratory failure, said his companion, Kim Hewitt.

In a career spanning five decades, Mr. Marquette worked predominantly with United Press International and the Associated Press and chronicled four presidencies, from Ronald Reagan to George W. Bush.

Joseph Chartrand Marquette was born Jan. 6, 1937, in Indianapolis and grew up in Detroit. He developed an interest in photography as a child after his parents bought him a Kodak Brownie camera. He entered journalism as a courier at the Detroit News, and he formed friendships with photographers who helped smooth his path to jobs with UPI, first in Minneapolis and later in Denver.

He spent several decades with UPI but also had stints in the mid-1980s with Reuters (where he helped establish its U.S. wirephoto service) and the Philadelphia Inquirer. He worked for the Associated Press from 1991 to 2003, followed by two years with the European Pressphoto Agency. He freelanced until moving to Oklahoma in 2009.

His marriages to Eva DeMaggio and Carol Giacomo ended in divorce.

Survivors include his companion of nine years, Kim Hewitt of Tulsa; a son from his first marriage, Anthony Marquette of Centennial, Colo.; a son from his second marriage, Christopher Marquette of Cos Cob, Conn.; a brother; and a grandson.

Full Article by Adam Bernstein Nov. 7, 2016 can be found at <https://www.washingtonpost.com/>

https://www.washingtonpost.com/national/joe-marquette-pulitzer-winning-news-photographer-dies-at-79/2016/11/07/aecbcb7a-a46c-11e6-8fc0-7be8f848c492\_story.html

Tribute Wall

“ Joe Marquette

October 23, 2023 at 01:21 AM

“ Steve and Doris

Mattea - October 20, 2023 at 05:47 PM

“ My condolences to the Marquette family. I remember meeting Joe several times at Reuters. He was as friendly and kind as he was professional. May you be comforted by many warm memories. M.R. Bland

melissa bland - November 10, 2016 at 08:46 PM

“ It is our honor and privilege to serve the Marquette family and to provide this permanent tribute website in memory Joe Marquette.

Hayhurst Funeral Home - November 06, 2016 at 06:01 PM