“ To the family, I just want to reach out and send my deepest sympathies for your loss! John and I knew each other as childhood friends in California. It is such a blessing to hear how good of a man he became. He was always sweet and I am happy to hear he never changed. I am also glad that he had such a good and loving family. He was a treasure. I know your loss is a deep one.

In loving memory,

Dawna (Johnson) Mongold and husband, David.

“ Papa, thanks for being you!! God made us to cross paths when I was just a punk kid and newly married. You and Christina were there to guide me and change who I was to become, something better. From there, is were I was grafted in as yoir son and most people would never understand. All that matters is we do:) I am forever grateful of the hours and hours of fellowship and prayer, that help build on the rock of my salvation. This is a hard day, not that you have passed, but that you are at the place I long to be. So excited for you and very soon we will be face to face again! Praise be to Jesus for the power over death! Love you Papa Keech
