“ Hey Jon, just writing you on a day I've missed you dearly, summer is coming up and Fourth of July is almost here....ima miss that so much, I still remember your laugh, the sound echos hard inside my head. But it's something I love it helps me hold onto you...things are not what you wanted them to be and the company isn't what it should be, I know ur upset about it but please don't worry somehow I'll fix it....please give god a few good words for Bryce, he needs it, he is struggling so bad trying to live up to your legacy and he is suffering to do that...he's so strong you would be proud of him....I miss you every day more than you know...we are still fighting....so please guide us... I love you

“ I miss you more than you would ever know man. You were my best friend. I lost my dad and you promised him you would take care of us and you went above and beyond. You were an amazing dad to me and I never told you that. I would give anything to be able to tell you I love you and thank you for being an amazing father to me. I'm working my butt off to try and keep your legacy going. Please continue to be with me and guide me and don't let me give up buddy. Life is definitely not fun without you. I don't know what I will do this summer without you. So many cookouts and holidays. Don't get me started on the 4th of July.. that will never be the same. Sports.. the dang thunder are not doin good right now. I miss every morning at work talking sports or “breaking news” trying to hurry and tell you what it was before you found out. You wouldn't believe it if I told you Bob Stoops will be coaching again in all the places..... the XFL. You would be so excited. Your favorite coach will be coaching in a league that's the owner of “wrestling” thank you for everything man. All the memories the lunches/dinners we had. The OU game last year, I could go on forever of the memories we share. Since 11 years old I've looked up to you and thought you were so cool. You helped make me the man I am today. I love you man. “ We can't hardly believe Jon is gone. As neighbors, we'd have a conversation over the fence, watch family and friends come and go and enjoy watching Jon out mowing the lawn, cold beer in hand and soaking in nature's beauty and blessings. It was always fun to see Jon on the golf cart, riding the kids around and having a good time. It is a reminder that we all live and die and that we must enjoy life, friends and family while we can; we never know if or when we'll have another chance or another day to call up an old friend, take a leisurely drive or tell someone how much they mean to us. God bless to all of Jon's family and friends that are hurting and missing him so! Bruce & Claudia

“ Jon had the gift of making people laugh. There was never a dull moment when he was involved. I had not talked to Jon in years but still considered him a close friend. He was the kind of person who made an everlasting impression on everyone he met. RIP Jon

Jon, we are sure going to miss you. We enjoyed our over the fence chats and all the activities of seeing your family and friends come and go. We'll miss seeing you mowing the yard, driving the kids around on the golf cart, your happy smile and wave, as we came and went as neighbors. Love Bruce and Claudia

Jon , you are forever in our hearts . I'm broken hearted that you are gone . You always had a great attitude, giving nature , kind , caring and loving to everyone. My family was so blessed to be on your life path . Thank you for all you did and continue to do through your teaching and nouturing my Sister and family . You carried her through The toughest parts in her life battling breast cancer . You were our Rock when our Grandmother passed away . She always thought you were the best . She was right ! Going to miss you .
