Juanita was born in Boynton, Oklahoma on January 7, 1926 to Lloyd and Sadie (Morgan) Warren. Juanita passed away on December 21, 2018 in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma at the age of 92.

Shortly after graduating from high school, in 1944 during World War II, Juanita stepped up to help out our country while our young men were at war. Juanita became one of the famed Rosie Riveters building airplanes and supporting herself and her country.

Juanita married Jack Stewart and their union was blessed with three children. After Jack passed away, Juanita was able to find love again later in life and married David Gilligan. Juanita was a wonderful wife, mother and grandmother. She adored her family and loved spending time with them. Juanita was a very strong yet caring and giving person and a great role model for her family.

Juanita was a superb athlete, excelling in basketball. At age 17 she was offered a position to play for the National Red Heads, a ladies basketball team. She later enjoyed watching her grandchildren play sports. Juanita was also a talented cook and enjoyed going to casinos. Until her retirement Juanita was working as a supervisor for First American Title and Abstract Company.

Memorials may be made to American Cancer Society, 4110 S 100th E. Ave., Grant Building, Ste. 101, Tulsa, OK or the American Diabetes Association, PO Box 11454, Alexandria, VA 22312.
