She passed on to eternal bliss in Tulsa, on Friday, December 4, 2020 at the age of 93. Services under the direction of Hayhurst Funeral Home set for Wednesday, December 9 at 10:00am in the Chapel.

Juanita tested and got her G.E.D. and pursued a career as Deputy Court Clerk for Tulsa County. She met and married W. L. "Doc" Heard on August 27, 1942 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. “ I have the honor of being her Granddaughter. She was the best Grandma anyone could ask for.

Growing up, I stayed with them a lot & so glad I did. She made the best hash browns & she made them for me every time I was there, even up to her last years. She made me my own skillet full, she knew I would eat it all. 😊 Grandpa was always the disciplinarian & Grandma was the one saying, "Doc, leave her alone", as she put her arm around me.

She was such a loving and selfless woman.

When my Mom was so ill, I'd stay with them & my Aunt Sandra & Uncle Larry, so she helped me with my homework a lot, especially the multiplication tables. She would draw the diagram, explain it & quiz me. 😊 She was the best role model. She loved the Lord with all her heart & instilled that in me at a young age. In my adult years, I started dating a man, which I eventually married, Ronie. His work as a driver took him by my Grandparents home every day. He would see them outside, honk & wave. When I took him to meet them, he was surprised & told me how he'd honked & waved for years. Ronie told me he didn't know they would become his family. That's my Grandma, always smiling & giggling. I guess that's where I get it from. When Grandpa passed, Ronie took her a Valentine card & asked to be his Valentine. She just giggled & hugged him. Every year after that, he gave her a Valentine card. She'd tell me, "Lynn, I'm going to have a bag packed & run off with him" & giggle. I told her, "I will run after & stop you, he's mine!" Ohhh, what memories. I'm sorry if this is lengthy, but these are memories I wanted to share, & couldn't say at her service. She was the epitome of unconditional love & showed us all how to love with her whole heart. I know she is in Heaven with Grandpa & Mom, singing all the Hymns & being with the Lord that she loved so much. Grandma, we already miss you more than you know, but know we will be reunited again. I love you with all my heart & will remain with me forever. 💕💕

“ As a child I went to square dances with my Mother and Dad. They were friends of Doc and Juanita. As I grew up and become engaged Juanita issued my marriage license in 1974. I will remember her fondly and send my condolences. Cynthia (Pierce) Alex

“ I don't know if it's normal for a son to pay tribute to his mother here, but I can not let her go without telling the world that I was very fortunate to have such a sweet and loving mother. She was the first to love me!! I love you very much, Mother. You are sorely missed
