

Judy Wood

November 6, 1944 - February 6, 2025

Judy Ann Wood was born on November 6, 1944 and passed this life into the Gates of Heaven on February 6th, 2025. Judy was a wonderful daughter, sister, mother and friend as well as a strong woman of faith.

Judy lived in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma from 1980 until 2018 when she moved to Florida for medical care and to be with her family.

Judy earned her Master's Degree as a mental health counselor as well as serving in Stephen Ministries through Heritage Methodist Church in Broken Arrow, Oklahoma.

Judy was very proud of her heritage as a Cherokee Indian and additionally worked for The Cherokee Nation during her time as a counselor.

Judy was an amazing lady who was tenacious, kind, patient, selfless, giving and dedicated her life to helping her family and friends.

Judy loved to dance, laugh, have fun and dedicated her life to her 3 children, Mary Kay, Johnny and Michael as well as twin granddaughters, Taylor and Jordan.

Judy was preceded in death by her parents, Raymond and Lucille Wood, brother, Jerry Wood, both sons Michael and Johnny Rourke as well as her granddaughter Taylor Arrington.

“ Judy was a special lady. She took me right in when I started working at HACN. I cherish the times we spent having Bible Study at lunch. She was someone you could always go to for advice and prayer.
