

Julia Nyikos

February 13, 1924 - December 24, 2023

Julia Ann (Krizmanik) Nyikos was born on February 13, 1924 in South Bend, Indiana the daughter to John Krizmanik and Juliana Krizmanik. She passed peacefully from this life on December 24, 2023 at the St. Paul II, Gospel of Life Dwelling in Moore, Oklahoma. She was just two months shy of 100 and was ready to go home to be with Jesus and start rejoicing.

The family is grateful to Sr. Maria and the aides (Lifeguards) who took exceptional care with love that helped her in her last months there.

One of our best memories will be when her family surprised her on her 99th birthday on February 13th with all five generations present. She even met her first great-great-grandchild. She was a beloved mother, raising seven children which gave her 20 grand children, 8 great-grand children and one great-great grandchild.

She lived a long, full life with lots of adventures and visits to many of the holy Marian sites around the world. She will be missed by those that were fortunate to be part of her life.

“ Growing up from a small child to who I am today I have so many memories. Yo going to midnight mass to hear the choir sing and services then hime and waking up yo opening presents then off to grandmas and grandpas house to open more. The adult got the usual socks and underwear lol. We kiddos played. As those of us who are among the elder grand children can remember going to their house on Easter and hunting for eggs to either find pieces of candy or pennys and dimes and nickels. The real treat was finding those quarters.

Then when I was a little older we all started moving south I was sent ahead to stay with them while mom and dad got things organized. Grandpa worked everyday and golfed on Saturday. Grandma ran a tight ship. She made sure I stayed busy. Swimming lessons, reading time each afternoon, visits to local nursing home on Fridays. She taught me to kneel and pray morning when I woke up and before I went to bed. It was always Our Father, Hail Mary, then now I lay me down to sleep. To this day I remember Tuesday's were wash day, Wednesday we ironed all the clothes, Friday's we dusted and vacuumed. It used to drive me crazy.

Now that I am 53, I have come yo realize what she did why she did it and know that it was way yo make sure I didn't have time to get into trouble, and to keep my mind busy. Trouble was for my 20's. Lol. I can now see that she was trying to instill a hood foundation for me in life. Making sure I walked a better path. Wished I saw that before now. As an adult I see why she did what she did and have come yo see the blessing in her way was bestowed on me. I will cherish these memories. Lord know non of us are perfect, but to know her way was filled with love and trying to guide me yo right way was such a gift I now see.

I've come yo admire the thing she instilled into me that I use today. She made me into a better person. I will miss her, but delighted in the life lesson aong the way. Love you grandma.
