“ Michele and I are mourning the loss of Kara but we are celebrating her life and the fact that we were blessed in knowing such an amazing woman. She was a wonderful wife, mother, and friend. She had a wonderfully generous and caring heart. We are comforted by the fact that she is in perfect eternal fellowship with Jesus - free from the troubles of this world. We love you Jake, and the kids - and you will remain in our prayers. Please reach out to us if you need anything!

“ Corey and I are so heartbroken to hear of Kara's passing. She was a bright light and always so upbeat and welcoming. Jake...I knew you had an amazing wife when she wore a snakeskin dress in honor of your nickname in Mexico...you two were visibly so in love. It is never easy to understand why such a loving wife and mother would leave so soon, but know that she is with you and that you have an army of family and friends that will help you and your children through this time. I hope you find comfort in the memories you cherish and peace knowing Kara is celebrating in her eternal life. All of you are indefinitely in our prayers.

“ Fort Worth, Texas. This beautiful, wow so beautiful woman would come in and had lunch in my restaurant weekly. So friendly and always smiling. Jake worked at that restaurant and came in to a semi full bar and sat down next to this beautiful woman. I truly believe that one night of fun and laughs created a powerful relationship between a woman and a man. I'm going to miss you Kara. Your smile always lite up when I approached you and made me feel welcomed. Damn you for leaving our world, but love you for being so incredibly amazing that The Lord needed YOU. YOU WILL BE MISSED. I'm still in SHOCK.
