“ Words cannot express the sorrow we feel in Karel's passing. First Ken and then Karel so close afterwards. We have so many great memories from being neighbors and friends for over 30 years. Our family will miss there jokes and the laughter and the shouts across the street that happened so often. Karel was very special to me and my family and we will miss her dearly. Rest in peace and hopefully you will all find comfort that your mom and dad are back by each others side and that is where they are the happiest. With deepest sympathy... The Mitchell family

“ I cannot begin to tell you how sorry I was to hear about Karel. Looking at her picture, I can just hear her laugh. It was infectious. Know that I am thinking about all of you.

“ I wish I could find the right words to bring your family peace. Loosing Ken and Karel so close together is more than any family should have to experience. I try to take comfort in thinking that, Ken couldn't be without you, even in heaven. Together forever. Peace be with you both and your family. Sarah Hord
