“ Kathy was a dear friend and neighbor of mine in Broken Arrow. I miss her already.

Kathy was the last surviving sibling, and spoke fondly of losing her younger sister with whom she lived with, before moving to Broken Arrow to be near her two sons, Mike and Steve, who mean the world to her! She was very friendly, and I sensed she was very lonely as well. She enjoyed the company of healthcare workers who came to her house and her housekeeper. She wanted to enjoy life, but she was so very sick and had so many health setbacks. She tenderly loved her bengal, Rosie, until she died; and replaced her with a rescue dog, Bear, a “wild thing”, who went to live with Mike after Kathy moved into the care facility. She loved flowers and preferred chocolate over my oatmeal raisin cookies. I would bring Kathy cheeseburgers, Frosties, and Diet Coke to her at Brookdale, and we would sit and visit. Initially we went to the courtyard, but as her health deteriorated, we just stayed in her room. She knew her time on earth was nearing an end and would tell me to not forget her and to come again soon. I brought her Diet Coke and a Frostie after I got off work yesterday, and found off she had passed on. My heart is heavy. Praise God she is no longer suffering. May she rest in peace.
