“ Keith, it doesn't seem real that you are gone. Something wonderful about certain friendships is that you can always pick up right where you left off. I will always cherish my memories of you. I will continue to pray for your family. See you again when the time comes.

Elizabeth Yeldell-Jweid - August 17, 2019 at 02:27 PM

“ I met Keith my sophomore year in high school, through fellow friends who marched with us in B.A. Pride. He was one of my best guy friends ever; always happy and fun. In fact, every memory that I have of him makes me smile! He actually drove me to school everyday of my Junior year. Since I was never ready to go when he arrived to pick me up, he would sit in our kitchen and visit with my mom while our family cat rudely climbed in his lap. I am pretty sure that Keith was most likely allergic to cats and very certain that didn't care for them in the least, but he always let her sit there while he waited for me. That's the kind of friend he was: patient, quiet, loyal, and always there for you. He was such an awesome guy, he will be missed so much.- Mandy Miller
