“ I honor your memory Kelly Shannon Parsons and I grieve your passing. You were the most tender-hearted human that I have ever known. You loved your family deeply and without judgment. You were the glue that kept us all together. Your life was not an easy one and you endured more than your fair share of pain, but even still, you made this earth a better place to be and your being was a "beacon of light" for many of us. Rest now sweet cousin. I pray that your reunion in Heaven was GLORIOUS! Until we all meet again...
