Kenneth Lee Carr was born on Monday, April 7, 1930 in Bixby, Oklahoma, the son of Thurman and Jennie (Roat) Carr. He died on Wednesday, March 10, 2021 at St. Francis Hospital South in Tulsa, Oklahoma. He was 90 years, 11 months and 3 days of age. He was the oldest of nine children, eight boys and one girl. He was a 1947 graduate of East Central High School. Kenneth served in the Army during the Korean war. He attended the University of Tulsa, as well as Central Bible College, after honorable discharge from the Army. He held a variety of jobs over the years, including Finance Company Agent, Insurance Agent, Real Estate Broker, School Bus Driver, Maintenance for BAPS, owner of an automotive machine shop among others. Kenneth finished his career as a Delinquent Tax Collector for DeKalb County Tax Commission Office in Atlanta, Georgia. He was a private pilot and was co-owner of a Cessna plane. He took family and friends on several flying adventures. He enjoyed computers and stayed up to date with the latest technology.

Kenneth married Norma Jane Wallain on June 21, 1957 at The Broken Arrow Assembly of God Church. They had four children and their family continues to grow. Norma preceded him in death on September 5, 2019. They were members of The Assembly at Broken Arrow. Kenneth was a man of few words but you could tell he loved the Lord by the way he lived. He read his Bible every morning and prayed for family and friends daily. His family was his life. He loved to go out to eat with them and fellowship. He was faithful to take everyone to church, starting as a young man - with his young siblings, his grandmother, his blind mother and then the grandchildren on to great-grandchildren Kenneth always made you feel safe. He touched many lives - Gone but never forgotten.

“ My Uncle Kenneth was one of the the most generous and caring men I've ever known. We got to know each other well when he gave me a job at his machine shop in Broken Arrow when I was 18. He and my aunt Norma would also join me and my Grandma for lunch after church on Sundays. I'll always have fond memories of him and the times we spent together. God bless.
